"THEY ARE JUST AWAY"

"We cannot say, and we will not say, that they are dead: They are just away!

With smiling faces, and a wave of their hands,

They wandered away in a far off land.

So don't cry, that land is a land of happiness,

where sorrow never comes, for joy never leaves.

Have you forgotten, they aren't dead, I told you so.

Trust in me for we know it's hard to believe, but Who can say, for they have gone away. That's right they're just away.

But remember a strong and mighty man, came and took them by the hand and led them to a strange and Far off land. Ronald and Amos aren't dead, they took a trip to a place called "Happy Land".

We shall think of them the same, for we say it now,
they are not dead, they are just away."

FOREWORD

With pride and pleasure
the 1968 Centralian Staff
proudly presents to the faculty and students their 1968
yearbook: "The Centralian"

With pleasure,
Vincent R. Nathan
Editor

EDITOR IN CHIEF

As the years go on, we pause for a brief trial run of our very happy past school days at the big "C".

Though I am very proud of being connected with the publication of this year's annual, I would like to compliment the staff on being diligent in their task and doing such a splendid job.

Bringing to an end twelve successful school years, this annual is a captain of the wonderful years in the Central Family.

This is a time for asking for guidance to make a great step forward toward our future. Selecting a career is as essential as trying to become what you select to do, therefore let a hint to the wise be sufficient: try to select a career that suits your capabilities or you will find yourself in a situation that you cannot handle.

Cordially yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Vincent R. Nathan". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned above the printed name.

Vincent R. Nathan

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

You, the class of '68 have now come to the time of graduation. Congratulations! It is hoped that none will say "So What" nor, it is hoped, that any will say "Graduation - Big Deal." These "Modern" expressions are nihilistic - nihilism will neither propel you nor our society forward.

You leave high school in an age of real crisis. Our democratic idealism is in the throes of either pains of birth, or pangs of death. It is conceived that these pains and/or pangs will continue rather indecisively for the next two decades. The moment of truth will not be delayed longer, I dare predict. Thus, it is conceived that your generation will prove the decisive influence in determining whether the democratic ideal as expressed in The Declaration Of Independence, The United States Constitution, The Gettysburg Address and The 1964 Civil Rights Laws shall become real or perish from the earth for this time.

Now, think very soberly for a little while concerning the fundamental tenets of the democratic ideal. Dare compare the philosophy thereof to any and all other philosophies of government known, and reach a logical conclusion concerning the most desirable form of government as a means of enhancing human dignity and self fulfillment.

Do you believe that the very orderliness of the universe could have been but the results of chance? The democratic ideal says no; all other basic philosophies deny the universe as the work of a super-force.

Do you believe in human dignity and individual worthwhileness? Only the democratic ideal leaves credence to the positive answer to this question. Do you believe in the dignity of worthwhile productive labor? Do you believe in man's sharing his abundance so that none shall be denied a reasonably elevated floor upon which to proceed in quest of personal fulfillment?

Only the democratic philosophy seeks to provide this elevation as a principle of government. Do you believe that man has the right to worship (or not to worship) according to his personal beliefs and insights? This guarantee can only be defined in democratic philosophy. Do you conscientiously believe that every man should have the right to choose his medium of self determination and self expression? Examine carefully every philosophy of government known to man and you must conclude that only the democratic ideal holds such to be an "Unalienable Right." Pursue the interrogations as far as you will and answer truly the question: Which philosophy offers most to self fulfillment and personal dignity?

Now, do not confuse the philosophical ideal with present attainment and reality of democracy. Know the force of personal selfishness, bigotry, prejudice, human frailty in fulfillment of democracy. Realize rather forcibly that freedom is never guaranteed by creed nor philosophy. Know full well that, power tends to be corrosive to the extension of democracy and that institutionalized power is ultra-corrosive.

This realism thus recognized, entails a constant industrious and constructive effort to keep virile the quest for freedom of self, dignity of the human being, and the right for expression of the self.

Keep alive the torch of freedom by industrious, logical, and spiritual promotion of the philosophy of the "Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man." This is the critical imperative of the day; this is really the crisis of the age. And I predict again, this generation is the decision generation which will determine whether "Government of the people, By the people and For the people" shall grow or perish from the earth in this moment of history. The next two decades will prove decisive.

THE ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL SPEAKS

To The Class of 1968:

Because of the positive impression that you have left upon us during your three years here, it is with mixed emotions that we say our last good-bye to you. It is only because you could not progress if you remain here that we are willing to relinquish you to higher places and greater responsibilities.

It is our fond hopes that as you take your respective places in today's complex society, you will be able to use some of the traits of citizenship that we have attempted to instill upon you. We are concerned with your success on a job if you are not first an honorable citizen.

PRESIDENT OF STUDENT BODY

As the hours we have left at Central continue to decrease, it will do us well to stop and ask ourselves where will we go from here? To many of us, the road seems bright and clear as we make plans for further education. However, to just as many others the picture is dark and uncertain.

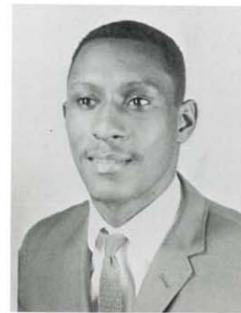

We are leaving high school with an education that has merely touched the surface. We have merely cleared the first of many hurdles in the swift race of life, and we should not allow the enjoyment that comes from this minor achievement to be great enough to allow us to stop here. We cannot allow ourselves to stop along the road of life, for as long as there are people, the road of life will continue to change. This is the time when we should open our eyes in search of new horizons, new goals, and new achievements.

We are the leaders of tomorrow, of America, and the free world. The responsibilities of the world are on our shoulders. As leaders of tomorrow, we must prepare ourselves now, for tomorrow may be too late. So remember, "Start where you are with what you have." "Make something of it." "Never be satisfied."

Sincerely yours,

Leonard Taylor

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY 1967-68

"For I dipped into the future, far as the human eye could see, saw the vision of the world and all the wonder that would be."

I saw Odessa Dubose as President of the United States and Gertrude Rutherford as the Vice President and Willie James Scott as a famous United States Senator. Also serving under the Dubose administration there was Charles Edward Johnson as the Ambassador to France and his foreign language Interpreter, Ronald Slay.

In the Supreme Court, I saw Larry Wade as chief justice while David Chaney and Fleet Belle were the nation's top lawyers.

I saw the beautiful architectural skill of Aiden Tiggs displayed in the houses in Millionaires' Manor with the interior decorating done by Clara Tucker, Rhonda Willis and Minnie Koger.

In the field of science I saw two great Physicists, James Brown and Elvin Wilson, explaining a new discovery to news commentator, Leonard Major. As I looked further I saw Mary Avery as the head Chemist of Dupont Company while Mary Bivens, Thelma Steinback, Maxine Jenkins, Gloria Sanders and Ethel Williams have just finished some valuable research on birth defects at Rockerfeller Institute.

In the new General Hospital I saw Horace Carter as the Administrator. Gazing through the halls I saw the room where Lawrence Mayhand, the hospital's most valuable neuro-surgeon, was performing an operation assisted by Faye Bracy, Charletta Taylor, Faye Alexander, Charlie Mae McClain and Linda Taylor.

As I left the hospital I saw the slums of New York being demolished through the efforts of five Social Workers Jacquelyn Moffat, Shirley Buskey, Barbara Buskey, Beverly Barney and Creola James.

While in New York I saw Frang Rogers and Beverly Walker on the Mothers-in-law Show and also the premiere of What's That Thing?, starring Sherrian Smith. The premiere was attended by many famous actresses including Barbara Dubose, wearing a blue gown designed by Frances Blackmore.

Leaving the theatre, I heard the sound of William Powell and his three piece band, Vincent Nathan, Michael Blackstones, and Roosevelt Phillips.

I looked over the New York Times edited by John Wilson. I saw interesting news in the sports section of the victory of the Packers over the Colts. Outstanding playing was done by James Lewis, Freeman Johnson, Robert Sanders, Sam Pugh, and Gerald Gamble. Playing in Europe with the Globe Trotters are Andre Brown, Hubert Campbell, Lester Wiggins, Schmitt Moore, and Nathaniel Dubose. While news of Charles Stallworth winning a gold medal in track at the Summer Olympics was spread.

Casting my eyes toward the sky, I saw Charles Wellington, and James Hardy fly over head, piloting the nation's newest space ship.

As I came close to home, I saw the city's largest bank and its president, Walter Noil, behind his desk dictating to his secretary, Argie Rogers. While his prize tellers Lebaron Pettaway, Mazie Ransom, Yvonne Tartt, and Beverly King were busy at work.

I left the bank and cast my eyes down Davis Avenue where the great Central High still stood. There I saw Sylvia Bonners as principal with Joyce Knight, Maggie Outsey, Olga Daffin, Deborah Johnson, and Angela Laffitte on the faculty. And there my adventure came to an end.

I have "dipped into the future as far as my eyes could see."

I prophecy that each of us will become what we want to be.

CLASS HISTORY

In September, 1965, we as sophomores, joined the Central Family. Though somewhat unfamiliar with this new way of life, we chose our officers with the utmost integrity. They were as follows; Pres. - Leonard Taylor; Vice Pres. - Robert Banks; Rec. Sec. - Mazie Ransom; Fin. Sec. - Beverly Hollins; Treasurer - Augustine Warrick; Reporter - Marvin Ellis; Chaplain - Clifton Morris. As Miss Sophomore, we elected Mona Lamar. The Junior Varsity had a great season with Leonard Taylor as captain. They were undefeated city-wide and chose as their queen, Barbara Brown.

Returning the next year, we as Juniors, tried to act accordingly. Our class officers were; Pres. - Leonard Taylor, Vice-Pres. - Augustine Warrick; Rec. Sec. - Doris Dixon; Fin. Sec. - Lynda Wolfe; and Bus. Mgr. - Vincent Johnson. Barbara Brown was our Miss Junior. Then came the event of the season, the Junior-senior Prom, "An Oriental Dream". As the theme speaks for itself it was a night among nights that will be cherished by many forever.

In the year 1967-68, we reached the zenith of our present phase of education, Senior year. To prove our superior intellect, we chose the following officers: Pres. - William McDaniel; Vice-Pres. - Lynda Wolfe; Rec. Sec. - Beverly King; Fin. Sec. - Cheryl Andry; Treasurer - Yvonne Tartt; Bus. Mgr. - Vincent Johnson; Reporter - Donald Parker and Chaplain - Augustine Warrick and Vincent Nathan - Editor of the Annual Staff.

Mary Bivens was chosen as Miss Senior; Ronda Willis as Miss Central and Debra Swint as Miss Marching One Hundred and Thirty. The Football Team, with Captain Robert Sanders, chose Faye Bracy as Miss Varsity.

These three years have been more memorable than any class History could ever begin to describe, however, we, the Seniors of the year 1967-1968, only hope that we have been an asset to our Alma Mater.
